

Reception

Next week, we will be looking at different water locations such as sea, ocean, rivers, lakes, streams, ponds.

Get your child to look at the different types and draw them in their books. Once they have finished drawing their different water locations, can your child label their pictures?

