

KS1 are gaining confidence in writing independently; the following resource is going to help them practice skills learnt at school.

Please do not print the slides; they are meant for discussion and understanding.

Please do not try to do all the tasks at the same time or over a weekend; this resource can be used over a long period of time to discuss and attempt writing independently in sha Allah.