

Maths

Over the holidays please go over the number formation with your child, writing the numbers 1-10 if they can write above 10 please encourage them to do so. Please also encourage your child to use the correct pencil grip. To help your child with their numbers you can sing the number rhyme with them, you will find this in your child's homework bag along with a maths activity book to help keep them busy.

